Description

Now taking applications for the waiting list.

Palmer Heights Apartments was designed specifically to meet the needs of working families with children. In addition to contributing new housing stock to towns where most existing multifamily housing is older and offers far fewer amenities, growing families now have more quality housing choices. Palmer Heights Apartments promise a better future for working families by creating an opportunity to live in decent, safe, quality homes where they can raise their children and build their futures. Moreover, Palmer Heights is a beautiful, well-constructed community, with stucco finishes and tile roofs, that are already making a positive addition to the surrounding area. The primary objective of this project was to create 61 units of high-quality, highly-amenitized housing for low-income families in the California Central Valley town of Huron. The community offers a much higher level of services and amenities than are available at other multifamily properties in the area, including a pool; a designer-decorated community activity center with multi-purpose room, computer learning lab, fitness center, game room, full-service kitchen and laundry facilities. Other features include barbeque and recreation areas, tot lots and full landscaping. 'Please Call for an Appointment Today'. Income restricted.
